

GENERALITIES.

Poisoned by Eye-Water. Coroner Keenan on Wednesday held an inquest at the Foundling Hospital on Ward's Island, N. Y., over the remains of John Garretta, a child sixteen months old, whose death was the result of swallowing a quantity of eye-water. The deceased was under the care of Maria Morrow, nurse in Ward 19, and on Sunday last, during her temporary absence, the child was left in charge of Ellen Fagon. Maria had purchased a bottle of eye-water for her own child and left it on the table, and during her absence the child got hold of the bottle and drank a portion of the contents. The nurse, on hearing the fact, notified Dr. Howard, who administered antidotes, but death ensued on Monday. The eye-water contained nitrate of silver and atropine, and in the opinion of the doctor the atropine caused death. The jury rendered a verdict of death from accidental poisoning.

A Babe Starved to Death. Coroner White, of Hoboken, N. Y., was notified on Tuesday morning of the death of a child named Pauline Peoni, under circumstances which led the people to suppose that it had been starved to death. It proceeded to the residence of its parents, in Franklin street, near Montgomery avenue, West Hoboken, and empanelled a jury, before whom the following facts were elicited: The child was born on the 8th of September, and died on Tuesday morning, and from the evidence of Mary Miller it seems that the mother used artificial means to decrease her natural supply of milk, and refused to nurse the child. Mrs. Elizabeth Herben, who resides in the same house, offered to take charge of the child, and on Tuesday morning, the mother, who made the post-mortem examination, testified that it died from starvation.

Lessons to the Indian Government. From the Bombay Gazette, August 18. M. de Lesseps has addressed the Indian Chambers of Commerce, calling attention to the fact fixed for the opening of the Suez Canal for through navigation, and pointing out the "extreme importance which attaches to a prompt and facile development of trade between Europe and the far East. Merchandise transmitted from the West to the East, or vice versa, being subject at present either to the delays of a voyage round the Cape, or to the disadvantage of transshipment in Egypt, trade is comparatively restricted, and as soon as the barrier is removed, and the distance between the East Indies and Europe reduced by one half, the new route will open the market in Asia to all European goods, and in Europe to all the produce of Asia. This great commercial change must be prepared for from the present time, and means of transport provided sufficient to meet the demand." M. de Lesseps therefore asks the Chambers to impress upon shipowners and merchants "the necessity of creating sufficient means of transport to respond to the commercial changes which the opening of the Suez Canal will produce."

Waste of Croton. We have frequently urged upon our readers the impending scarcity of Croton water, and have urged accordingly the necessity of the economy we shall soon be in as bad condition as the Philadelphians have been this summer. There is hope that the usual equinoctial rains may relieve us somewhat, but the fact that our daily consumption as stated by the Croton Board is 15,000,000 gallons, and our receipts only 25,000,000 gallons ought to give us all pause. There are on hand in the reservoirs, about 500,000,000 gallons, and the reservoir at Croton Dam is falling 2 inches daily. In this connection it is a significant fact that the Croton Board have notified the Metropolitan Board of Health to reduce the flow of the Croton water at all the drinking hydrants at least one-half of the usual quantity during the present scarcity of the supply.—N. Y. Commercial.

Citymen troubled with Dirty Streets. We call the attention of the Street-Cleaning Contractor and the Street-Cleaning Commission to the shameful condition of the streets throughout our whole city. Broadway, by the terms of the contract, is to be swept every night; and yet, from the Battery to Fourteenth street, it is covered with dirt. The sum of $205,000 is appropriated for keeping the streets of our city clean; and yet we know that the contractor does not spend more than at the rate of $250,000 per annum. Mayor Hall and other members of the Street-Cleaning Commission made a terrible fuss about dirty streets when Judge Whiting had the contract; but since the members of the "ring," by putting an obstacle in the way of Judge Whiting's way, and by putting off the payment due to him from month to month, compelled him to give up the contract to John L. Brown & Co., Mayor Hall, Corporation Counsel O'Gorman, and the rest, make no complaint about dirty streets, and the contractor goes on doing little or nothing but drawing his pay. Let Mayor Hall fire another hundred guns in the Park to celebrate our dirty streets. The "ring" that is allowing our streets to get into this shocking condition has two motives—the one is to make as much money as possible out of the $205,000 allowed by law, and the other is to allow our city to become so filthy that the "ring" can go to Albany and say, "We want more money to clean our streets." We think, however, that this "street-cleaning fraud" will be stopped much sooner than the "ring" expects.—N. Y. Tribune.

FOUR BABIES. The Curious Manner in which a Huge Swindle Was Exposed. Some time ago the entire city was thrown into a high state of excitement by the announcement that a colored woman living in the Upper Ward had given birth to four beautiful babies, and was doing well. Of course the newspapers got wind of it, and in a short time the fortunate mother and her four babies were duly advertised and congratulated. Everybody went to see them, paying for the privilege, of course, a trifling pecuniary consideration, and everybody came away perfectly satisfied with the natural wonder they had witnessed. Nay, more, Madame Rumor hath it that the story even reached the Executive ear and touched the Executive mind. That the Executive benevolence induced the gubernatorial functionary of the State, to encourage this noble example, to send as a present a cow and a calf to the happy mother of the four colored "voters" as aforesaid. But, alas! the cow and calf were the innocent means of bringing about a revelation that has rather sickened the public, and destroyed the romance of the whole thing. We relate the story of these four babies as it was related to us— Two colored women, living in the same house, gave birth at the same time to twins, and on the spot it was agreed to consolidate for the purpose of making money. The twins of one of them were laid in the bed of the other, and upon an agreement to share the money realized by the exhibition, it was announced that one mother was the proprietress of four infants. This created a furore. Many persons called to see the four babies, and were charged a trifle for the privilege. Things went on smoothly until the executive cow and calf came down like an apple of discord and caused a premature rupture of the division of the said cow and calf, which being not definitely arranged, resulted in one of the mothers making the true statement, and claiming her children, and so the whole matter leaked out. Seeing that she had had the money she had been given, the succeeding success, and now the Neck is in a perfect furore at being duped by these two sharp negro women. The spirit of Barnum has found its way down South.—Charleston (S. C.) Courier.

Plus IX is an amateur Weston. Eugene sends $800 a year on gloves. Goldwin Smith returns to Europe this fall. Dick Turpin has killed a fifteen-foot snake in Missouri. Dore made five hundred sketches in London in three weeks. Lucretia Mott has been visiting Nantucket, her birth-place. Nap's four physicians attend twice a day in court carriages.

THAT WITTY and wide-awake Republican journal, the Trenton (N. J.) "Union Sentinel," says:—"That indomitable and determined cuss, James M. Sewell, is carrying on the fight against the 'Ring' in the Republican campaign? We say to the earnest, working Republicans of Camden county, go ahead and halt not. If the Chow-Chow-Robeson-Cattell clique carry the Senatorial nomination, it will be by corruption that the party most repulsive to the public don't be afraid, boys. Give the dromes the full length of your steel, and slay them as you would the treacherous tricksters who would rule the party to its ruin."

THE PIONEER CLOTH HOUSE.—The Pioneer Cloth House of Eighth street was yesterday opened by the striking firm of FRIES, MALSEED & HAWKINS, at the southeast corner of Eighth and Market streets. The building, which they occupy has been specially fitted up for the retail cloth business. The firm have a magnificent assortment of ladies', men's, and boys' wear; cloths for coats, trousers, and coats; cassimeres for suits for men and youths. FRIES, MALSEED & HAWKINS have for many years carried on an extensive wholesale business on Market street, below Fourth. They intend to continue. Their store at Eighth and Market is established as a branch, giving their patrons the advantage of a superior assortment of goods at prices that cannot be beaten by any other house in Philadelphia.

SILVER PALACE SLEEPING CAR EXCURSION TO SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.—As a matter of interest to our readers, we may inform them that a silver palace sleeping car, built by Messrs. Jackson & Sharp, of Wilmington, Del., will be run through from this city to San Francisco, Cal., leaving here on the 5th or 6th of October. Several manufacturers and business men of Philadelphia and Wilmington design taking advantage of this opportunity to visit the golden region, with more comfort than the regular route of change and changes permit. The party is limited to forty, and as but a few vacancies now exist to complete the number, prompt applicants will secure them. For particulars, address JACOBSON & STARR, Wilmington, Del., or apply at the office of "The Underwriter," No. 519 Walnut street, Philadelphia.
